Davenport University to host Appreciation Luncheon and Resume Workshop for Area Veterans and Spouses

SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 28, 2013 – On Sept. 11, Davenport University’s Saginaw Campus will show its appreciation to veterans and their spouses through a special luncheon and resume writing workshop. Following a luncheon provided by Old Country Buffet, participants will hear a presentation about translating their military skills to a civilian resume.

“Davenport University is excited to present this fun and educational event for veterans and their spouses in the Great Lakes Bay Region,” said Denise Sherman, Director of Davenport’s Saginaw Campus. “Our University is known for helping students prepare for growth careers and for the high levels of support we provide to military veterans. This event is just one more way we can help those who have sacrificed so much to keep our country safe.”

Participating community partners include Old Country Buffet, Veterans’ Health Administration, Michigan Works! and Davenport University Career Services and support staff.
